ALLIANCE FOR SUSTAINABLE COLORADO and Co-hosts Governor's Energy Office, City of Colorado Springs, Colorado Springs Utilities, University of Colorado - Colorado Springs, Catamount Institute and its Pikes Peak Sustainable Business Network program, and Sustainable Pueblo invite you to a

Regional Sustainability Roundtable

June 17, 2010, Thursday
12:30-4:00pm
Colorado Springs, CO

AGENDA

At the roundtable dialogue we will:

- Gain consensus on the top sustainability issues reported as most in need of long-term attention in this community/region; identify how each of us is connected to those issues and to the solutions; and create plans to move forward;
- Discover how the local sustainability movement can create green jobs, especially for harder-to-serve populations;
- Identify promising sustainability practices.

PLUS

11:00am: Optional Tour of the new UCCS LEED-Gold Science and Engineering Building is being offered by Sustainability Office Director, Linda Kogan before the Roundtable. For more details, contact lkogan@uccs.edu. Meet at the front entrance of Science Engineering Building across from the library (Campus map).

4:00-4:30pm: 'Learn how to Implement Sustainability in your Business'- Optional Demonstration of new tools created by Natural Capitalism Solutions for small and mid-size businesses (Details below)

About the Regional Sustainability Roundtable Meetings

The Alliance for Sustainable Colorado is conducting a series of eight Roundtables around Colorado in 2010 to bring together leaders from nonprofits, businesses, government and educational institutions to share key issues and challenges, as well as best practices and lessons learned related to sustainability.

The collaborative roundtable dialogues enable participants to make contacts and build relationships that foster a statewide sustainability network.
