

Meeting of the Minds

DidYouKnow?

Four meetings rooms of different capacities are utilized for trainings, receptions, lectures, planning meetings and phone banks.

The Alliance Center welcomes all for dialogues about social, environmental, or economic sustainability.

Conference rooms and conversation nooks throughout the building are available to tenants as well as individuals, – allied non-profit, for-profit and governmental organizations.

These shared spaces foster communication, which stimulates dialogue among colleagues and fosters partnerships.

